PEACE FLITS ABOVE THE BALKANS

Turkey Asks Bulgaria Direct for Terms of Peace on Which to End War

PEACE OR WAR LIES NOW IN FERDINAND'S HANDS

His Ambitions are Feared—Turks Slaughter and Destroy—6000 Starve in Hills

BERLIN, Nov. 14.—Dispatches from Vienna say that confirmation reached here today of the report that Kismil Pasha, Turkish Grand Vizier, had appealed to Czar Ferdinand of Bulgaria direct, asking for peace terms.

With Russia overawed by the display of German-Austrian strength on their frontiers, diplomats today believe the danger of a general European clash is ended. If this be true, Balkan allies probably will not get much of European Turkey as it is expected Bulgaria will probably get Rumelia, a share of eastern Macedonia, and Serbia will secure an outlet on the Adriatic without political authority. Montenegro, it is declared, will get ten or fifteen miles more of seacoast. Bulgaria is the only one of the allies likely to profit territorially to any extent. Albania is likely to be transformed into a semi-independent kingdom with nominal Turkish sovereignty.

PEACE RUMORS WERE PUBLIC YESTERDAY

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The correspondent of the Daily News, at Constantinople, under yesterday's date, says: "At 4 o'clock this afternoon the director of the transport service informed inquirers at the war office that a cessation of hostilities had been arranged. Simultaneously, almost, another official summoned the chief contractors for supplies, including military boots, blankets, foodstuffs and forage, and informed them that hostilities would cease this evening. Existing contracts, therefore, were canceled and no further military supplies will be forwarded to the front."

CZAR FERDINAND'S AMBITIONS MAY BALK PEACE PLANS

LONDON, Nov. 14.—Peace or continued war with the Balkans is believed to hinge on the attitude of Czar Ferdinand in regard to Constantinople. If Ferdinand does not enter Constantinople it is believed the war will end speedily and that Turkey will grant all the concessions demanded by the allies. The Czar, however, has been characterized as the most ambitious ruler of Europe and possibly may persist in carrying Constantinople by assault.

PEACE IN SIGHT—POWERS ADVISED TURKEY IN COURSE

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 14.—Every last night pointed to a speedy declaration of an armistice preliminary to final peace. Turkey seems to have made up her mind in spite of any radical disinclination to the contrary, to negotiate direct with the allies. She is the more inclined to do this, because the powers are by no means unanimous regarding a basis of mediation.

It is stated that this decision has been arrived at on advice of the ambassadors of the powers. The real truth of the situation is yet not obtainable. Some reports say that an armistice has already been arranged. Other reports have it that negotiations are under way, but on all sides it is regarded as certain that peace is in sight.

Fresno Public Market Reduces Cost of Living

FRESNO, Nov. 14.—The free public market is conceded to have helped alleviate the high cost of living in this city. The market is conducted as an experiment on a broad street, but the fact that from 1000 to 3000 patronize it on market days, assures its permanency. Every kind of a commodity, from a new fangled kind of ironing board to mince pies, are to be had.

Butchers strongly oppose the market, but now have established their own booths there. A meat war was started yesterday with the result that prices were cut to 2 1/2 cents a pound. The city health officer and city sanitary inspector are on hand every day to inspect the food.

BOY SCOUTS ARE PANAMA CANAL ORGANIZED HERE TOLLS FIXED BY TAFT

Council Chosen, Constitution and By-Laws Selected and Officers Elected President Bases Rates on Report Submitted by Expert on Transportation

BUSINESS MEN TO HAVE OVERSIGHT SYSTEM OF TOLLS WILL PAY COST OF BIG CANAL

Enthusiastic Meeting Was Held at United Presbyterian Church Last Night Charges About as Those of Suez Canal But no Charge is Made for Passengers

The Boy Scout movement in Santa Ana and the neighboring towns is now a reality, and has been firmly established.

At the United Presbyterian church last evening the organization of a Boy Scout council was effected. A constitution and by-laws were adopted and permanent officers were elected.

A council of prominent business and professional men was also elected to back up the work of the movement and to keep the business in thorough working order.

There was a goodly number present, and all entered into the spirit of the discussions concerning the organization and showed keen interest in the work of boy character building. The meeting last night is the outcome of the need of a central organization for the purpose of carrying on the work more satisfactorily.

Already scout patrols have been organized in some of the Sunday schools in Santa Ana and the towns of the county, and were only waiting for this meeting to be held, so as to receive the necessary backing to push the work. Different men connected with the Sunday schools have found the boys are anxious to become organized scouts, and now that this central council is on hand the movement ought to proceed in a most satisfactory manner.

The permanent officers of the council who were elected last evening follow: B. F. Beswick, president; L. Durfee, vice president; Emory Ratcliffe, secretary; Geo. S. Thacker, treasurer; E. B. Douglass and Chas. Robinson, executive committee; R. J. Hamilton, scout commissioner; R. J. Hamilton, E. H. McMath, L. A. Durfee, Z. B. West, V. L. Denton, were elected as a court of honor. Geo. S. Thacker, chairman; L. J. Carden and T. D. Knights compose the financial committee.

After the organization was perfected the executive committee held a brief business session in which it was voted to put up a banner to be awarded to the most proficient Boy Scout patrol in the county, in a series of contests to be planned and announced later.

The committee also appointed three new scout masters as follows: H. H. Campbell, Orange; Martin Warren and Clifford Hughes of Santa Ana.

The council elected to back up the movement in the county is as follows: B. F. Beswick, V. L. Hughes, G. S. Thacker, Charles Robinson, R. J. Hamilton, J. A. Cranston, E. H. McMath, Geo. H. McPhee, J. P. Baumgartner, Dr. John Wehrly, J. A. Stevenson, J. H. Scott, Z. B. West, N. A. Bealls, W. J. Lieser, A. M. Shaw, C. H. Stearns, H. O. Eggen, P. C. White, G. F. Sawyer, V. L. Homes of Mrs. F. M. Gist and A. R. Wilson Entered by Thieves Last Night—Long List of Burglaries Since Oct. 18

- Oct. 31—Night burglary. Hawley's gun store. Loss, $15 in coin, two revolvers, two flashlights.
- Nov. 1—Daylight burglary. O. M. Newman's home at 1210 N. Main. Loss, four rings, bracelet, and other jewelry.
- Nov. 4—Night burglary. Bridwell's motorcycle shop. No loss.
- Same night attempt made to enter Harry Miller's store.
- Nov. 9—Night burglary. J. Nicholas' store at Delhi. Loss, $95 cash.
- Nov. 12—Daylight burglaries at Orange. John Wilson's home, corner Glassell and Palmyra; loss, $2. H. H. Hilliard's home, South Grand; loss, small articles. William Wagner's home on South Batavia; loss, suit-case, clothing, jewelry, totaling $125.
- Nov. 13—Daylight burglary. E. H. Turner's home at 604 E. Fourth. No loss.
- Nov. 13—Night burglaries. Mrs. F. M. Gist's home, 502 W. First; loss, gold chain, opera glasses, jewelry. A. R. Wilson's home at 1001 Ross; loss, several rings and other jewelry, $1 and baby's bank.

The most baffling series of burglaries committed in this county in many years has the officers puzzled. Last night the series was added to by the robbery of Mrs. F. M. Gist's home and A. R. Wilson's home.

Since Oct. 18, when a burglar walked into S. V. Poston's home on Ross street, stole $65 and walked away in full view of two occupants of the house, with whom he talked, there have been burglaries of various kinds to occupy the minds of the sleuths. Los Angeles has been having the same kind of an epidemic, with little success in running down the perpetrators of the crimes.

The boldness of the thieves who have operated here is remarkable. Two of the stores entered here were entered from the front in the glare of street lights. Twice in daylight burglaries here the thief has been seen. In one of the three daylight burglaries at Orange on Tuesday, the burglar was seen as he ran from the house. In another two ladies saw the men come out of a house, and they walked along behind the men for two blocks.

Two Santa Ana homes were entered last evening between 7 and 9 o'clock. Mrs. F. M. Gist was absent from her home at 502 West First street from 7 until 8:30. On returning she found that some one had used a pass key to enter the house, which had been searched. Articles missing are a three-foot gold chain with a pearl slide, a pair of opera glasses, an old-fashioned breast-pin, and collar and cuff buttons.

The home of A. Ray Wilson at 1001 Ross street was entered with a pass key. Articles taken from the house include one opal ring, one signet ring, one blue-stone ring, one baby's ruby ring, two silver spoons, a 32-caliber revolver, $1 in money, a baby's bank containing a little money, and some Stork scrip.

Have Description

The officers have a good description of the two men who entered H. H. Hilliard's home on South Grand street, Orange, yesterday afternoon. The men were seen coming out of the house, and Mrs. Parks and another neighbor walked behind them for two blocks. One of the men is rather tall and slim and walks with one leg somewhat bowed. The other man is short.

When the search was made after the burglary was discovered, it was thought that the thieves got nothing but some keys and a nut-cracker at the Hilliard home. Several articles have been missed since then, among them handkerchiefs and a breast-pin.

Burglars Gained Entrance to the house by breaking off the lock of the back door.

The revenue per annum during the first two or three years of the canal's operation will average between $12,000,000 and $13,000,000. By the end of the first decade the revenues will probably have risen to $20,000,000.

"If only foreign ships are required to pay tolls, the receipts during the first few years will be between $10,000,000 and $11,000,000 per annum and will rise to $16,000,000 or $17,000,000 by the end of the first ten years. It is not probable, however, that the rate of $1.20 per net ton will be maintained throughout the decade.

SHE IS GOING TO LEARN TO FLY

Florence Seidel Buys an Aeroplane, and on Monday Takes Her First Lesson

MARTIN'S SCHOOL OPENS NEXT WEEK

Manager Ulm Makes Arrangements to Give Miss Suratt a Ride in the Air

Florence Seidel is going to be an aviatrix. She has bought an hydro-aeroplane from the Glenn L. Martin Co., and on Monday next she will take her first lesson in the navigation of the air. She lives at 121 Orange avenue, Santa Ana.

Santa Ana produced Glenn L. Martin, one of the most successful airmen flying, and in Florence Seidel Santa Ana stands an excellent chance of becoming the home of another flyer of prominence.

Glenn Martin taught her how to run an automobile. At that time he was in the automobile business in Santa Ana, and she proved to be an unusually apt pupil. As an automobile driver her judgment has always been good, and her control of the machine at all times indicates that she is cool and collected when quick action is necessary.

Several months ago she became infatuated with the idea of flying. She looked upon the proposition as an excellent one, for there are but few women fliers, and there is always a demand in exhibition work for an aviatrix, where an aviator would not do.

The purchase of a hydro-aeroplane was made several months ago, and the machine is now completed.

Florence Seidel will be but one of eight or nine pupils who will begin their schooling next week at Glenn Martin's new headquarters at East Newport.

One of the pupils will be a heavy-weight aviator. His name is A. H. Hullenberger, and he comes from St. Louis. Hullenberger has arrived here with his wife, and will be ready to commence his study for air work Monday.

Martin has been busy this week directing work at East Newport, where he has established his school for teaching the use of the hydro-aeroplane, which Martin considers a safer machine than the aeroplane. A platform sloping into the water has been built for starting and landing. The machine in which he will teach his pupils has the same pontoons that he used at Chicago, which are much larger than the pontoons used by Martin in his flights at Newport Bay last May.

She Wants to Fly

On Wednesday of next week Martin is to take Miss Valeska Suratt on a flight over Newport Bay. Miss Suratt and her company, which is to appear in "The Kiss Waltz" at the Grand Opera House Wednesday evening, will arrive here about noon, and the flight will occur about 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Arrangements for the event were made with Martin by N. A. Ulm, manager of the opera house, who had a thrilling ride with Martin last summer.

When the suggestion for a flight was first made, Miss Suratt's manager strenuously objected, but Miss Suratt was determined that she would fly. She saw Martin fly at the Boston meet.

New Automobile

To facilitate his work, Martin has purchased a new Stoddard-Dayton 50, which will arrive in Los Angeles in two or three days.

PRIME EGGS ARE 72 CENTS PER DOZEN IN NEW YORK CITY

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—New Yorkers had to pay 6 cents apiece, or 72 cents a dozen, yesterday, for their special brands of fresh laid eggs, and even the ordinary nearby barnyard fresh-laid eggs were fetching 60 cents a dozen, wholesale, in the open market. The scarcity is not entirely due to cold weather, but to growth of population and unprecedented demand.

"BEAST-MAN" JOHN TORNOW MAY SOON BE IN HANDS OF SHERIFF

ABERDEEN, Wash., Nov. 14.—Sheriff Fayette of Chehalis, believes today he is closing in on John Tornow, "beast-man," slayer of four men, whose depredations caused many settlers to flee from Wynoochee, in the Satson River county. Tornow's food cache was accidentally found by a farmer. A posse is waiting for the cache for the murderer to return.

TAFT'S VIEWS ON ELECTION

Surprised at Col. Roosevelt's Strength; Was Hopeful But is Not Much Disappointed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—"I was extremely hopeful the result of the election would be different. I was surprised at the strength of Colonel Roosevelt." This was the declaration of President Taft today on the outcome of the election. He continued:

"I had hoped we would pull through but I am not in a condition of mind to be greatly disappointed by my defeat. The difficulty I find in a Progressive program is that it contemplates the impossible. If the country could stand the burden I would like to see the attempt made in order that the people might learn the hollowness, impracticability and sham character of many of its promises. The sheet anchor of popular government is a division of the people into two great parties, no more."

NAMES LARS ANDERSON AS AMBASSADOR TO JAPAN

The appointment of Lars Anderson of the District of Columbia as ambassador to Japan was officially announced today by the State Department. This appointment by President Taft had been expected.

PRESIDENT-ELECT IS ON VACATION

Guards His Destination From Public; Will Get New Bicycle for Trip

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 14.—The destination of President-elect Wilson, who leaves on Saturday on a vacation, is carefully guarded. Princeton will not see him again until December 16. It is believed he has abandoned his trip to Bermuda and will put up at some quiet spot in New York. Wilson in telling the reporters that he intended to do much bicycling, said: "I have my old chainless wheel but I do not take it as it is no good in the hills. I shall get a new one when I reach my destination."

PEOPLE OPTIMISTIC

There is something in the optimism of the American people that takes a past result as so much water gone over the dam. You can't recall it. The only thing to do is to see if there was some fault in the dam that led to the break, and wait for next time.

The business man to whom the election results seemed discouraging the morning after, by the next week has begun work again from a new point of view. It is the business of a business man to adapt himself to all conditions. The outlines of the new landscape which national advance has to travel may seem unfamiliar or discouraging. But soon the eye of the man who is accustomed to make his own track through obstacles sees some opening of hope ahead, through which he already sees signs of a path.

Whatever mistakes the government may make, whatever bad times the country has, there is always a recovery, with an advance to a still higher ground.

MEDICAL IMPORTANCE OF PANAMA

On the completion of the Panama Canal, there will be a readjustment of routes of commerce and travel, which will radiate from the canal to all parts of the world. The western coast of Central and South America will then constitute a definite sanitary menace to the United States. Close contact by ship with the ports where yellow fever, cholera and small-pox are always present, not to mention a host of other infectious diseases, will expose our Atlantic and Gulf ports to the constant peril of epidemic invasion. It will probably fall to the Public Health Service to provide against this new danger. The present quarantine service embraces a chain of fifty-three stations encircling the United States, New York being the only important port not covered by the federal service. The Public Health Service also includes Porto Rico and Hawaii in its quarantine protection, and administers the quarantine of the Canal Zone. The maritime traffic which will converge at the Canal Zone will bring with it large numbers of sailors of all the nations, including the United States, and a medical relief station will be necessary. The Journal of the American Medical Association says that a large marine hospital should be erected at some favorable location in the Canal Zone, either at sea-level or in the mountains; it would find a large and increasing field of usefulness, and in fact will be almost a necessity. Out-patient offices at Colon and Panama should be equipped for emergency and ambulance cases, and as receiving stations for the marine hospital. There is a unique opportunity in the Canal Zone for the establishment of a laboratory for the investigation of tropical and sub-tropical diseases. The clinical material which will be available from all parts of the world, especially from Central and South America, will afford opportunity for valuable studies of diseases which will soon be even a greater national menace than at present.

THE EVOLUTION OF THE HOSPITAL

The modern hospital is a sanitary work-shop. Until a few years ago, it was a place where sick people could be kept until they recovered. Today, it is a work-shop where they are made well.

A few years ago the adequately equipped hospital was a clean house with clean floors, clean walls, a clean bed, indifferently trained nurses and a doctor whose sole means of diagnosis were his ear, his eyes and his touch at the bedside of the patient. Today the modern hospital has a laboratory of pathology to aid the surgeon or physician in his diagnosis, a laboratory of bacteriology, a department of physical therapeutics for various sorts of exercise, a department of dietetics in which patients may be fed by the doctor's prescription and their food measured in exact terms; an operating department, aseptic, with all which that term implies; a milk laboratory for infant-feeding, and a vast list of machinery such as blood-pressure apparatus, instruments for measuring and microscopes and instruments for counting the blood-cells, x-ray outfits, apparatus for introducing normal salines and other fluids into the blood, and so on down the list almost ad infinitum.

Yet this change is more one of degree than of kind. In 1863, Florence Nightingale published a book on the hospital of that day. Her plans down to the minutest detail show the hospital unit almost precisely as it is today—the ward flanked by the service-room, the bath, the toilet, the slop-sink room, the convalescents' dining-room, the linen room, the surgical dressing room, the supply-rooms and the medicine closets.

Today, says Dr. W. B. Russ, in a recent issue of The Journal of the American Medical Association, our units are the same, but our construction is steel and concrete; we have no carpets and dust-catchers; our furniture is of white enamel. We have forsaken the old-time heat registers with their dust and soot; we have steam radiators that give nothing into the sick room; we have screens on our windows to deny admission to the fly and the mosquito and other insects that may carry the organisms of disease. We know that sunlight is one of God's ways of curing disease and that fresh air is one of the greatest physicians in the world, so that we build our modern hospitals with windows facing to the sun, with air-space measured in terms of cubic feet for the sick.

Our Washington Letter

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Changing styles in politics and also in senators is materially affecting the use of one well known committee room in the capitol—the private sanctum of Senator Clapp of Minnesota. He is chairman of the Senate Interstate Commerce committee and has a secluded private office, adjoining the committee room, on the basement floor of the Senate wing of the capitol, just opposite the Senate restaurant.

The "conspiracy chamber" is the name Senator La Follette of Wisconsin dubbed this private office, several years ago. That is the name it is invariably called by Senate attaches, and also by many senators. Just now the "conspiracy chamber" is used by the Clapp investigating committee, as it is known, in fostering new depths of campaign contributions to be probed. The Senate committee investigating political financing holds its secret sessions in this room, planning new witnesses and discussing past testimony. There it will probably frame its official report upon recommended corrupt practices legislation.

Senator La Follette jocularly gave the "conspiracy chamber" its name because of the many meetings of Senate "insurgents"—Progressives, in recent years. There La Follette, Clapp, Bourne, Bristow and other "insurgents" held their private meetings to discuss their plans of battle on the Senate floor.

"Bargain counter" prices are an innovation at the bou ton restaurant of the capitol—while crowds of Congress are lacking during the legislative recess.
"Why, you can get a ham sandwich now for ten cents," was the startled exclamation of a capitol "regular" in commenting on the reduced scale of prices in the cafes of the Senate and House.
An investigation shows that the ordinary "winter schedule" of prices for food at the capitol cafes are cut just in half. Five cents each for coffee, ham sandwiches, milk and cuts of pie is now the regular tariff. In winter the scale is a dime each.
The restaurant concession is given by contract to a caterer by a committee of senators and representatives, with a maximum scale of prices. This maximum is generally in vogue when the crowds are thickest every winter when Congress is in session, but competition of dairy lunches and cheap restaurants during the dull recess period is giving capitol em-

The "Pedestrians Club" of the U. S. Supreme Court has reorganized for the winter. "Chief Hiker" of the club is Chief Justice White. "Privates" in the waking squad of eminent jurists are Associate Justices Holmes, Hughes, Lamar, and, occasionally, McKennah.

Between 4:30 and 5:30 every fair afternoon the distinguished pedestrians "perform" on Pennsylvania avenue. They walk from the capitol to the treasury—a good mile—and then scatter to waiting vehicles or the pebbled street car. Theirs is a fairly brisk gait, too, considering their years. They walk along in earnest, sometimes in almost agitated conversation, oblivious to the remarks of passersby by whom they are recognized. They are a favorite "feature" of the capitol sightseeing guides, to point out to tourists.

Chief Justice White is the most ardent advocate of pedestrianism as an exercise. He is a pupil in "hiking" of former Justice John M. Harlan, who was an inveterate pedestrian until his death.

Seaweed as a substitute for military decorations on women's hats is the "high cost of living" reform suggested by Uncle Sam. American consular officers in Great Britain report that "seaweed hats" are the latest fashion hints from the other side of the pond.

Along the Kentish coast white seaweed, washed up by the tides, is being collected in great quantities and marketed at a comparatively high price. It composes a profitable industry during the winter months. So popular has the seaweed become in the millinery trade, and so great the demand, that establishment of a "closed season" for the gathering of the material is being considered, because of the ravages of growing weed plants by the fishermen.

Buzzing of high-power American electric fans is displacing the lazy, droning "punkah" in the Orient, according to a report received at the State Department from Consul General George Anderson, of Hongkong. The "punkah" or overhead fan, hung from a ceiling and agitated by coolies pulling it from side to side, is gradually disappearing in the East, Anderson says. American electric ceiling fans are displacing the "punkahs," but there is no demand for the smaller desk fans so familiar to Americans. Within the last year $25,000 worth of electric fans were bought in Hongkong.

LEE MCCLUNG QUILTS U.S. TREASURERSHIP

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.—Beginning December 1, railroads operating in California must post bulletin boards recording the time of arrival and departure of all trains in depots and must keep their depots open at least thirty minutes prior to train time, according to general order No. 31 issued by the State Railroad Commission here.

The order states that the telegraph operators employed in stations must be furnished with the correct information regarding arrival and departure by train dispatchers and this information posted at least thirty minutes prior to arrival or departure of trains. Passenger depots also must be kept well lighted and warmed.

NATIONAL GRANGE MEETS AT SPOKANE

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 14.—Representatives from twenty states and scores of members assembled at the opening session of the National Grange in the Armory building yesterday. Temporary organization was effected. National Master Oliver Wilson, of Illinois, is one of the leading figures in the convention. A hot fight is expected over the change of representation in the national council. The progressives maintain the states with large majorities should have the greater voting power. They are opposed by the reactionaries, said to be in the minority.

McMANIGAL TELLS MORE OF HIS STORY

Said He Had Private Entrance to McNamara's Office; Told of Dynamitings

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 14.—The trial of the forty-seven union labor men charged with dynamiting was resumed today, the two sick jurors having recovered. Ortle McManigal, the confessed dynamiter, continued the story of his alleged crimes.

McManigal taking the stand against the labor leaders today testified that he met Edward Smythe of Peoria, one of the defendants, in that city. Smythe wanted the McClintic, Marshall plant destroyed, but it was not done. He said he returned to Indianapolis and saw President F. M. Ryan of the iron workers' organization who upbraided him for appearing at union headquarters and warned him to change his alias. He swore that John McNamara arranged a private door in his office for the witness' sole use.

"When we stored 100 quarts of nitroglycerine in the Union vault," the witness said, "John McNamara turned to me and said, if the stuff goes off it would blow up the Soldiers and Sailors' Monument." He then described various dynamitings.

The railroad division on which the wreck occurred is not equipped with block signals. The State Railroad Commission has announced its intention to force the railroad company to install them immediately.

HARVEST FESTIVAL

Women of First Presbyterian Church Hold Annual Thank Offering

Each year the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church, in accordance with a long established custom, holds a Thank Offering, an occasion when the members of the church gather together in what may almost be termed a harvest home festival, partaking of the fruits and bounties of the season, and giving to the cause of missions, some of the abundance of prosperity with which they have been blessed during the year. It is a very beautiful custom. Yesterday was the thank-offering day of 1912, and was as delightfully observed as on any previous occasion.

After a meeting of the Missionary Society in the afternoon in which the devotionals were led by Miss Ida Mitchell, followed by a vocal solo by Miss Hazel Rowley and a splendid talk by Mrs. Baker on work being done by the church in Latin America, the ladies busied themselves with final preparations for the "family supper," as they love to term the bountiful repast which they last night began to serve to members of church and congregation and friends of the church, at half past five o'clock. From that time until 7:30 o'clock the tables were set again and again to accommodate the hundreds of people who joined in the harvest home feast. Greenery and autumn decorations were used in adorning the dining rooms and the many tables on which halves of pumpkins filled with fruit made attractive centerpieces. Dozens of charming young girls waited deftly at the tables, while many willing hands dished appetizing viands, steaming hot, from the serving room where the supply of good things seemed endless.

At 7:30 the guests adjourned to the main auditorium of the church where the evening program was opened by a pipe organ number skillfully played by C. A. Gustlin, followed by a scripture reading by Mrs. J. H. Stevenson, a prayer by Rev. Paul Stevens. Mrs. James S. Rice then sang most touchingly a beautiful arrangement of "The Ninety and Nine" and "Ashamed of Jesus," her numbers being accompanied by Mr. Gustlin on the organ.

A talk on China and Japan illustrated by stereoscopic views taken personally by Miss McCaughey and Miss Bolth of Arch Beach on a recent tour in the Orient, was given by Miss McCaughey, and proved to be wonderfully interesting. One of the particularly interesting features of the talk was descriptions of the locality where Dr. and Mrs. Mateer, who visited here not many months ago, and Miss Grace Rowley, are located. Miss McCaughey told in an intimate way that brought time and place very near to her audience, of snapshots of conversation with the Mateers and Miss Rowley, and of the attractive homes they have made in the beautiful grounds of the Mission compound jointly owned by the Presbyterians and Baptists. Indeed much of the speaker's address was given to vivid little sketches of the personalities and achievements of the devoted missionaries who labor for souls in the Orient. Her talk was given in a purely conversational way that had a charm of its own in addition to the interesting information it conveyed. The views were unusual and of great

WHY FRET?

In the November American Magazine appears the following:

"Are the trains too slow for you? Caesar, with all his court, never exceeded the speed limit."

"Are your wages too small? In Europe people are contented with making a living."

"Are the nights too dim? David wrote the psalms by the light of a smoky torch."

"Are you ugly? Cleopatra, though homely, bewitched two emperors."

"Are you cold? The soldiers of Valley Forge walked barefoot on the ice and snow."

"Are you hungry? The children of India are starving for want of a crust of bread."

"Are you tired? Why fret about it? Jacob was tired when he dreamed of the angels of Heaven."

"Are you sick? Suppose you had lived two thousand years ago when sickness was fatal."

"Are you poor? The Savior of men was not wealthy."

"Cheer up! Praise God that you live in the midst of His blessings!"

"WHY FRET?"

variety. Some of the most attractive were of the beauty spots of Japan, that country of alluring landscape, charm and marvelous development.

The evening was one of rare enjoyment, no little of the interest resulting from the exhibit of curious costumes shown by Miss McCaughey with the aid of Miss Hazel Rowley and Miss Nancy Elder. The Mandarin coats with their rich embroidery were of course the most showy of the collection, but real personal interest was felt in the testament manuscript given to the speaker by Mrs. Mateer.

The program was closed with a brief prayer by the congregation led by Mrs. J. A. Stevenson, who had presided during the evening.

Serenaded Newly Weds.
The daughter of Mrs. J. Geis, Miss Myrtle Crutchfield, was married Saturday night in San Diego to Mr. Lawrence Sheedy, and they are spending their honeymoon in Santa Ana. A party of friends took advantage of this opportunity to serenade them in the old-fashioned way, the serenaders being accompanied by the footing of horns and beating of tin pans.

The happy couple will make their home in San Diego, where the groom is employed.

Economics Section No. 3
The Third Economics Section will hold their next regular meeting on Friday, Nov. 15, at 2:30 p. m., at the home of Mrs. E. H. Prince, 702 Hickey street.

Literature Section
The Literature Section met Tuesday at the home of Miss Mary Talbot on Ross street.

The subjects for study were James Fenimore Cooper and Richard Henry Dana. The following had papers: "Life of Cooper," Miss May; "Life of Dana," Mrs. A. M. Shaw; "Two Years Before the Mast," Miss Mary Wakeham.

The study of Dana was particularly interesting from the fact that he visited Southern California in 1830. Dana's Point, near San Juan Capistrano is one of the places where his ship stopped for hides.

Hears of Mother's Death
The many friends and patrons of the Misses O'Donnell, the popular milliners, will sympathize with them in the recent loss of their mother. A telegram early in the week told of her serious illness. Miss Anna left early Wednesday for Minneapolis to be with her mother. Early Wednesday afternoon Miss Katherine received a message that the mother died Tuesday night.

Mrs. O'Donnell visited her daughters in Santa Ana three years ago, but could not be persuaded to locate in a new home. At the time of her death she was 70 years old.

MASONIC HEAD IS GUEST

Grand Commander Meek and Other Grand Officers Visit Santa Ana Commandery

Last evening Santa Ana Commandery enjoyed an official visit from the Grand Commander of California, R. W. Meek of Oakland. He was accompanied by several grand officers, including W. A. Hammel, Deputy Grand Commander; Perry Weidner, Grand Captain General; General Wan Kowski, Grand Sword Bearer, and Freeman G. Teed, Recorder of Los Angeles Commandery.

Santa Ana Commandery was highly commended by the grand officers for its efficiency in the work, both ritualistic and military bearing of both officers and Sir Knights. Rev. Sir Bruce Brown of Fullerton, on behalf of Santa Ana Commandery, thanked the grand officers for their visit and their commendations of its work.

C. C. Chapman and Jesse Chilton of Fullerton were in attendance. P. E. Com. G. D. Toothaker, accompanied by quite a delegation from Orange, was also in attendance. A really sumptuous banquet was served at 6:30, the spread being enjoyed by about one hundred Sir Knights.

Missionary Tea
The Missionary Ladies of the M. E. church South will hold their regular tea at the home of Mrs. A. N. Zerman at 603 South Sycamore street on Friday afternoon, Nov. 15, at 2:30.

On account of making preparations for the week of prayer which begins on Nov. 17, the tea will be given one week earlier than usual.

All the ladies of the congregation are welcome.

Returns from Visit
J. W. McLelland of Durant street recently returned from a two months' visit to his old home in Oxford county, Ontario. Mr. McLelland came to Orange county thirty-five years ago and had not visited his old home, which is near London, Canada, since then until this summer. He found many changes in that part of Canada, and was greatly surprised to find that it had progressed in proportion to and was as much alive as this country.

While at his old home Mr. McLelland's sister, Mrs. Eleanor Mills, gave a picnic in his honor at which more than a hundred guests were present, many of whom were relatives. He left this sister and a brother, Ezra McLelland, in comparatively good health, although both have passed three score years and ten.

New Society
The members of the American Woman's Republic last night held the first study meeting at the home of Mrs. J. B. Rowland on North Broadway, with Mrs. Rowland as leader. This section was formed about a month ago and all women of the American Woman's League are eligible to membership by a payment of two dollars.

The study hour proved most profitable last night and the members of the section are anticipating a most enjoyable season.

Home Missionary Tea
The ladies of the Home Missionary Society of the First Methodist church will hold a tea tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. J. Rogers, 1010 Ross street. Good-bye Parties Yesterday afternoon the home of Mrs. Louise Wickersham and her daughter, Miss Lou Wickersham, at 822 F street, was taken possession of by the neighbors in the 800 block of F street, who gathered in a farewell party. The visitors took with them gifts and good wishes and the time passed all too swiftly.

In the evening the Berean class of the First M. E. church assembled at the home in honor of Miss Lou, whose

Mrs. and Miss Wickersham leave in two weeks for Hollywood, where they are having a new home built and where they expect to reside.

Pleasant Afternoon
Mrs. H. C. Head had charge of the program given by the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Christian church yesterday at her home. It was C. W. B. M. Day and the various phases of the work of the board were considered. Mrs. A. G. Lucas talked on the general aspect of the work; Mrs. Vance on the finances; Mrs. House gave a report of the recent International Mission Convention at Louisville and Mrs. R. T. Harris read a story written by Mrs. Madison, one of the missionaries working in India, who is partially supported by the local church.

Singing Evangelist Crittenden, who is assisting in the revival now going on in the Christian church here, sang pleasingly for the ladies. Later the hostesses, Mesdames Head, Lucas, Harris, Vance and House, served refreshments.

Music and the Drama

To the largest house that amateurs have played to here in many a day, nine Santa Anans last night put on "The Three of Us," at the Grand Opera House. The play was under the direction of Herman Reuter, who also took one of the leading parts in an excellent manner.

With all the ease and effective acting of many of the best professionals who visit the play-house, Mrs. Florence Thayer McClay last night again won her way to the hearts of her audience. The part of Rhy MacChesney is admirably fitted to her capabilities and charms of manner and personality. Verily she proved herself an aptitude of smiles and tears. If the original Rhy MacChesney was half as clever, good looking and interesting as the Rhy MacChesney of last night, no wonder she did not lack suitors.

The three important parts taken by men in "The Three of Us," were Arthur Collins as Stephen Townley, lover of Rhy; Herman Reuter as Louis Berresford, the conspirator and seeker for Rhy's hand by dishonorable means, and Pete West as Clem MacChesney, Rhy's brother, determined to get away from the mining town, see the world and make money. Each of these three in his part made a hit. Collins' love making and enthusiasm and his anger and mystification were carried on with skill. Reuter had the proper air of a careless, world-wise, well-dressed, wealthy villain.

As one who filled the bill for his part, Pete West will be remembered. He had all the upishness of a youth at the age when he is almost uncontrollable, when he knows more than anybody else on earth, when, as Magie suggested, what he most needs is a spanking. But with all of that, his heart was right, and the lovable sister proved it.

Miss Edith Cole as the good looking, attractive Mrs. Bix and Mrs. C. W. Raney as the irresistible Magie, won frequent applause of appreciation well deserved. Ted Shaw made a nonchalant Tweed Bix, according to the character, while Carl Burns was everything that a Sonnie MacChesney ought to be. His yawns and his appetite were equally telling. Roy Peterson was equally pleasing in the two parts he took, Lorimer Trenholm, indignant when he thought he had been betrayed, and Hop Wing Chinese servant.

ASQUITH FEARED RIOTING ON FLOOR

Adjourns Commons Till Monday; Government Scored for Refusal to Resign

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The fear that rioting on the floor of the House would engender had feeling between the Conservatives and Liberals in the night over the Home Rule bill this afternoon, prompted Premier Asquith to act on the suggestion of Speaker Lowther and order an adjournment until Monday.

Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, appeared on the floor today with a swollen cheek and a blackened eye, as the result of having been struck by a book thrown yesterday by Ronald McNeil, Conservative. McNeil apologized today.

LONG BEACH PUTS THREE R'S TO FRONT

School Superintendent Thinks
Them Important; Teachers
Not Docked for Illness

LONG BEACH, Nov. 14.—More attention will be given to reading, writing, and arithmetic in the Long Beach schools if Superintendent W. L. Stephens can accomplish his purpose. At the board of education's regular monthly meeting, Mr. Stephens expressed the opinion that too much time was being given to art, music and sports. He did not deny these studies, but said he felt the three "R's" were more important.

A supervisor of penmanship will be employed by the board at a salary not to exceed $1400 per annum. Thomas W. Williams, former police chief, was appointed trustee officer by the board, his salary to be $1 for every case investigated and reported upon.

A recommendation suggested by Superintendent Stephens, that all teachers be allowed full pay for absence on account of personal illness or provided that no teacher shall receive more than full pay for five days and half pay for fifteen additional days for such absence during one school year, was adopted by the board.

LOS ANGELES NORMAL SCHOOL REPORT SHOWS SPLENDID WORK

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 14.—Jesse F. Millsbaugh, president of the Los Angeles State Normal School, has completed the thirtieth annual report of that institution which will be presented to the board of trustees.

"The most noteworthy fact in connection with the year under review has been the continued remarkable growth of the school and the increase in the number of graduates," says President Millsbaugh in his report.

"The increase in enrollment of students for five years has been 655. The increase in per cent of enrollment for five years has been 151. The increase in the membership of the faculty for five years has been 17, a percentage of 85 for the same period. The total enrollment for five years has been 3950.

"To have maintained the same ratio of faculty and student body that obtained five years ago, there should have been an increase of 30 teachers during the period instead of 17," continues President Millsbaugh.

Establishment of Special Courses
"For many years the school has maintained strong courses in manual training, art, music, domestic science and physical education and all students enrolled in the school have taken assigned work in each of these as necessary preparation for teaching in the elementary schools.

"More recently, however, both from school officials and from students has come an urgent demand that more extended courses be offered in these subjects—courses sufficiently comprehensive and thorough to prepare for service as departmental teachers those desiring to specialize in any one of them.

"In response to this demand, such advanced special courses in manual arts, music and the fine arts were in September last opened to a limited number of students having the necessary preparation. If there had been a lingering doubt as to the wisdom of such a purpose, the number of applicants for each course and the eagerness of every applicant to register for the work would have resolved it.

"Many more students, well qualified and promising, than could be received sought admission. Strong work was done in each course. Those who completed the requirements prescribed for a diploma in any of the courses were promptly given responsible positions in public schools. Strongest encouragement to enlarge the scope of the work and to offer advanced courses in other special subjects is thus afforded.

Employment of Graduates
"The office of appointment secretary was opened two years ago and a teacher of experience who is also a graduate of the school was selected to perform the duties which it involved. This brief experience amply proves the importance and usefulness of the service.

"Not only have the large number of graduates of the school for these two years—the largest in the history of American normal schools—been helped to positions, but the relations of the school to the public schools of the state have through this agency been greatly strengthened and improved.

"More thorough-going investigation of positions before making recommendations results in fewer mistakes and better satisfaction to both school officials and students; after appointment, when desirable, correspondence is maintained with graduates for the purpose of advice and suggestion; many are saved the necessity of paying the teachers' agencies a percentage of their salaries; and the helpful influences of the school are continued indefinitely."

"The figures show that 3500 students have graduated from the school since it opened its doors. The total enrollment now in all departments is 1907. Of this number 1088 are in the normal school proper and 819 in the training department.

"In the general profession course in the general professional course course, 79; manual arts, 17; special art, 25, and music, 41.

"The financial statement shows that $84,838.34 has been spent for salaries, support, care of grounds, library and printing. The lands and buildings are valued at $600,000, the furniture at $9000; library books $17,000 and apparatus $3500. The library has 19,665 volumes of which 1438 were purchased during the year.

MICHIGAN WOMEN DEFEND BALLOTS

Will Prosecute if Suffrage Vote is Thrown Out on Liquor Dealers' Demand

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 14.—Attorneys for the women's suffrage organization yesterday gave notice to the members of the various boards of canvassers that if they heeded the demands of the liquor interests to throw out the suffrage vote in four counties their immediate future fortune would be five years in Jackson prison or a $1000 fine.

"They quoted a mandatory law in support of their ultimatum. The law provides that board of canvassers have nothing to do with the validity of ballots other than those spoiled by ignorant voters. The only recourse of the liquor dealers will be an appeal to the State Supreme Court for a mandate to order the State Board now to certify the suffrage vote in the disputed counties.

1912 BUILDING IN LOS ANGELES, GREAT

City's Building Operations Pass
$27,000,000 Mark, Passing Entire 1911 Record

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 14.—Los Angeles building permits for this year have reached a total valuation of $27,360,136, which is approximately $7,000,000 more than they totaled for 1911 at a corresponding date. Already this month the valuations of building permits have reached a total of $856,575.

Although November is making a good showing, it does not promise to reach the big total of July. In number of permits, however, November is far exceeding the average month of a year ago. There have been issued this month to date 623 permits for buildings, while in November last year to a date corresponding to the present time, the total number was only 451.

Some idea of the vast increase in the amount of building that is going on this year in Los Angeles may be had from the fact that the number of permits issued last year to a date corresponding with the present time was 10,198, while for this year to the present date they total 14,305.

This increase in the number of permits issued this year over those issued in 1911 approximates nearly 50 per cent, the greatest gain ever made in one year in the building records of Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

There were no changes of importance in market prices of produce yesterday. The supply is very good and just about keeps up with the demand. There was a considerable quantity of berries on the market for this time of the year. Strawberries were selling from 8 to 12 cents a basket, some very fancy stock which brings a good price, having arrived. Blackberries were selling around 9 cents a basket, and raspberries from 12 to 15. Fresh figs were selling around $1.50 for good stock, and are still on the market in fairly large quantities. Persimmons are quoted at 7 to 8 cents, and are very much in evidence. Receipts of apples were 2402 boxes.

Prices on sweet potatoes and tomatoes exhibited no changes of importance. Onions and potatoes were also quite steady. Receipts of onions were 900 sacks and 2959 sacks of potatoes came in. There was quite a large quantity of peas on the market. Eggs were firm, although an advance in the price of ranch stock is expected. Receipts were sixty-seven cases. Butter receipts were 18,040 pounds, and 2600 pounds of cheese came in. Northern fresh cheese was offered as low as 17½ cents, and still appears rather weak.

Father of Girl Married Here on Oct. 26 Had Son-in-Law
Arrested

De Rosa Swore She Was 21, Father Says That She is Only Sixteen

Declaring that he wants to save his daughter from a life of ruin, Andrew Montana, an Italian barber of Los Angeles, yesterday came to Santa Ana and swore to a complaint charging Albert I. De Rosa of 335 South Avenue 21, Los Angeles, with perjury. Montana declares that when De Rosa took out a marriage license and swore that Annie Montana was 21 years old he committed perjury.

It was on Oct. 26 that De Rosa and two men and the girl came to Santa Ana. Deputy County Clerk Backs issued the marriage license on De Rosa's affidavit. De Rosa gave his age as 27. Montana says it is 37. He gave the girl's age as 21. Montana says it is 16. With the couple were two Italians, who gave their names as Joe Cesano and C. A. Lombard. Montana and his niece, a good-looking Italian girl, declared that these men are loafers. They were married by Justice Fullerton of Orange.

Montana was much displeased over the elopement. Not only does he fear for the girl's future, but he was much angered over his daughter's defiance and neglect of parental authority. He had told her to have nothing to do with De Rosa. After the wedding De Rosa and his bride gave a wedding feast, to which they invited friends, but not the girl's father and mother.

Before her marriage the girl was employed in a candy factory. De Rosa was formerly a janitor. It is not known what he has been employed at recently.

The warrant was issued yesterday afternoon about 3:45 o'clock on the authority of District Attorney West, to whom Montana told his story. Sheriff Rudbeck sent information concerning the case to the sheriff's office in Los Angeles, and De Rosa was soon afterward arrested and placed in jail. This morning Deputy Sheriff Boynton went after him.

SAY SHOT WAS AN ACCIDENT

Conscious, Mrs. Talley Tells How She Came to Wound
Herself With Revolver

Recent developments in regard to the shooting of Mrs. H. A. Talley at Orange yesterday morning indicate that the shot was accidental and not suicidal. The first reports were that Mrs. Talley while temporarily deranged mentally fired the shot into her brain.

Mrs. Talley, who has been conscious practically all of the time since the injury, states that she picked up the loaded revolver, which was kept in the bedroom, and was taking it into another room when she reached up to adjust a hatpin in her hat, and in some way the revolver was discharged. It is thought the discharge was caused by striking the weapon against the edge of the door.

Relatives of Mrs. Talley declare emphatically that there is nothing in the suicide theory.

The injured woman is still at the Santa Ana Hospital. Two specialists were called from Los Angeles, one an eye specialist, the optic nerve being affected by the wound.

THROW OUT THE LINE

Give the Kidneys Help and Many People Will be Happier

"Throw Out the Life Line"—Weak kidneys need help. They're often overworked—don't get the poison filtered out of the blood.

Will you help them? Doan's Kidney Pills have brought benefit to thousands of kidney sufferers.

Read this case: F. L. Sexton, 1129 W. Second St., Santa Ana, Cal., says: "Off and on I was troubled by a dull pain in the small of my back and I believed that the annoyance was caused by weak kidneys. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended and procured a supply at Dean's Drug Store (now Wheeler & Mateer's Drug Store). Relief soon followed and as I continued taking them, great benefit came. Another of my family has also found splendid results from Doan's Kidney Pills. They proved as effective in relieving backache in that case as in mine."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

PROGRESSIVES TO LEAD LEGISLATURE

Will Control Both Houses; Los Angeles Organization to be Kept up

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 14.—A complete list of senators and assemblymen given out yesterday by State Printer F. W. Richardson and made up from telephonic and telegraphic information received from all the districts in the state show that Progressives will have a safe majority in both houses.

The returns show the assembly lineup will be as follows: Progressives, 45; Taft Republicans, 8; Democrats, 26; Socialists, 1. In the senate the Progressive majority will be five or six, according to the best information obtainable.

LOS ANGELES PROGRESSIVES TO MAINTAIN ORGANIZATION
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 14.—The splendid organization built up by the Los Angeles Progressives in the recent campaign will be made permanent and perfected. A well-attended meeting of the campaign committee was held at headquarters yesterday and a spirit of splendid enthusiasm and loyalty was manifested by all those present.

It was decided that permanent headquarters should be maintained in charge of Secretary Geleick and the assistant secretary, Mrs. Wiseman. The name of the organization in the future will be "Progressive county central committee," and it was the sense of the meeting that steps should be taken at once to organize a Progressive state central committee and a Progressive county central committee in every county in the state. The basis for these organizations, of course, will be the Progressive organizations in the state and in the different counties.

NEWPORT BEACH

BUILDING FOR WATER CRAFT

Martin Aeroplane Company
Has Started Operations on Newport Bay

NEWPORT BEACH, Nov. 14.—
Workmen employed by the Glenn L.
Martin Company started erecting this morning a big tent on lot No. 168, adjoining the South Coast Yacht Club at East Newport, which will provide shelter for the Martin hydro-aero-plane already on the ground until a permanent building for the company is finished.

The Glenn L. Martin Company was recently organized with a capital stock of $100,000. The officers and stockholders are: Glenn L. Martin, president; W. S. Collins, vice-president; W. A. Zimmerman, secretary and treasurer and William Loftus and C. Y. Martin.

A deal was made with the East
Newport Town Company Monday whereby lots Nos. 168 and 170 were taken on a two years' option to purchase at a price of $22,000. The site has a frontage on Newport Bay of 350 feet, and on it will be erected a permanent studded building with a pile foundation, 50x100 feet, large enough to contain three machines.

The purpose of the company is to build new machines and teach novices the art of flying.

Martin experimented with his hydro-aeroplane on Newport Bay last spring before he made his flight to Catalina and return. He has studied out a number of features, which, he says, are improvements, one of which will be to set the engine lower down and enlarge the pontoons. This will reduce the tendency of the machines to be topheavy and Martin says that it will be much safer to fly over water than over land.

The eight square miles of still water on Newport Bay was the inducement that brought Martin here to experiment with his hydro-aeroplanes.

FRUIT GROWERS OF STATE COMMENDED

U. S. Dept. of Agriculture Plans Energetic Campaign Against Mediterranean Fly

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The mediterranean fruit fly, which has come into prominence through determined efforts made by California to check its entrance into the United States, is the subject of an elaborate report, just issued by the Department of Agriculture.

The report says that the entrance of the fly would practically end the fruit industry in the West and South.
"There can be no question," says the report, "that the Mediterranean fruit fly is a most serious drawback to the successful cultivation of fruit in the country where it is established.
Indeed, the cultivation of fruits is scarcely possible in the worst infested regions."

"The fruit growing industry of Bermuda was practically destroyed many years ago by the introduction of the insect into that island. Its introduction into the United States, in all probability, will be a calamity to the orchard interests of our most Southern states and of California, in which regions it would find conditions very similar to those in countries where it now exists, in most destructive numbers."

The insect first came into prominence in 1829, when whole cargoes of oranges shipped from the Azores to the London markets were found to be infested, and did not bring the value of the freight charges. Peaches, apricots, figs, lemons, pears, quinces, plums, nectarines, guavas, apples,
citrons, mangoes, pumpkins, bananas, tomatoes, pineapples and persimmons have suffered from the scourge, and once established, hardly any variety is immune.

The report says the worst infested section of the Hawaiian Islands is the residence section of Honolulu, and it is from this spot that the greatest danger in California threatens.

The department admits that no effective means of controlling the pest has been found and suggests that all possible measures be taken to prevent its introduction into this country. The energetic measures taken by the California and Hawaiian authorities are warmly commended in the report.

GARDEN GROVE

CHILE DRYERS ARE KEPT HOT

Garden Grove Growers Busy Getting the Product Ready for Market

GARDEN GROVE, Nov. 14.—The chile industry which is engaged in on a large scale in and around Garden Grove is now at its height and the various chile fields are a scene of great activity. The growers are now busily engaged in curing the pungent pods for the market. With the help of Japanese the growers are handling a large amount of the scarlet peppers daily and tons are being shipped to Los Angeles and Mexico. They are handled by stringing the pods on two-yard lengths of twine. These strings of peppers are put into a large dryer and left until cured sufficiently to keep for one or more years. Women and girls are employed to string the pods. Among the largest growers of the product are J. Allan Knapp, Allan Brothers and S. W. Swall.

Nine Directors
At a meeting of the Y.M.C.A. here, the constitution was amended to permit the election of nine directors to manage the affairs of the association, and the appointment of a young men's cabinet which shall have charge of the department work. Directors elected are P. M. German, W. P. Coffman, S. R. Fritz, J. Allan Knapp, S. S. Jackson, J. T. McElree, Frank Anderson, E. Schneider. This board will effect its own organization and appoint the cabinet members at an early date.
The local organization is one of the strongest and most wide-awake in the country. They have a splendid Y.M.
C.A. band which adds greatly to the association.

BIG REALTY DEAL TO COST MILLIONS
Northern Sale of 60,000 Acres of Land at $1,500,000—Must be Reclaimed

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 14.—A realty deal which involves $1,500,000 as an initial expenditure for the land and will mean the reclamation of 60,000 acres of overflowed territory at the cost of $4,000,000, was closed yesterday in Sacramento. The purchasers were Chicago capitalists, represented by R. J. Dunham and advised by W.
E. Gerber, president of the California
National Bank of this city.

The largest single owner of land was E. Wineman of San Bernardino, who held 24,300 acres, for which he receives $608,000. Mr. Wineman's contract called for gold coin, but when he learned he would be forced to carry away from the bank more than a ton of gold he weakened and took certificates of deposits. The reclamation of the land will be part of the flood-control scheme in the Sacramento valley.

BOOK AGENTS' WILES

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Mrs. Emma Bird, a wealthy widow of Salt Lake City, told Judge Hough and a jury in the federal district court recently the story of how she had succumbed to the persuasiveness of a book agent and invested $47,650 in "rare volumes." Mrs. Bird is now suing John V. Cogey, receiver of the Kellar-Farmer Company, and others for the return of the investment on the ground that the "rare volumes" were bogus. The books included a set of Colonel Roosevelt's works, said to have been autographed by the author.

ORANGE GIRLS WON BASKETBALL GAME

ANAHEIM, Nov. 13.—The girls' basketball team from the Orange High School defeated the girls of the Anaheim High School on their own grounds yesterday afternoon by the score of 15 to 7. Inexperience lost the game for the locals as only one of last year's team played. The Orange girls played well as a team and individually their superiority was shown from the first blast of the whistle until the game was ended, their scoring ability kept them constantly in the lead and gave them a comparatively easy victory. The lineup was:

Anaheim	Orange
Fergus	Watson
Goertzen	Huntton
Goble	Wickersheim
Pannier	Evans
Schneider	McClellan
Matthews	Winterburn
This was merely a practice game and as such was thoroughly satisfac- tory. The first league game is to be next Saturday when the Santa Ana girls play Anaheim at Anaheim. Or- ange will also start the league series by playing the girls from Huntington Beach.

Debate

Great interest is being taken in the coming debate with Santa Ana High. Song and yell practice is held every morning in the auditorium of the high school.

REED AND RIG ARE CAPTURED

Man Who Rented Outfit From Iowa Stables and Disappeared Under Arrest

Constable Heard and the Sheriff's office received word yesterday of the arrest of R. H. Reed at Independence. Reed is charged with grand larceny. Two months ago he rented a horse and buggy at the Iowa Stables on East Fourth street, Santa Ana, drove out of the stables and did not return. Constable Heard sent out descriptions of the missing man and missing property, with the result that the sheriff at Independence recognized Reed and the rig yesterday morning. Reed had not disposed of the outfit after leaving here.

Nothing is known of Reed here. He was a stranger at the stables, but a good description of him was furnished by those who rented him the rig.

HUNTINGTON WILSON IS URGED FOR APPOINTMENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Friends of Huntington Wilson, assistant secretary of state, will urge his appointment to succeed Charles Page Bryan of Chicago, whose resignation as Ambassador to Japan was announced Monday.

While it is practically a certainty that President Wilson eventually will fill the various embassies with his own appointees, it is equally certain that the process of removals and the filling of vacancies will take considerable time.

No denial was made at the State Department yesterday of the reports that Mr. Knox had asked for Mr. Bryan's resignation during his visit to Japan last summer. Further developments in the case indicated clearly that Mr. Bryan's conduct at Tokio brought him into disfavor with the secretary.

CROP IS LESS THAN YEAR AGO

Dr. J. G. Berneike Urges Outside Walnut Growers to Join the Association

The "Pacific Fruit Grower" says: "Walnuts are well cleaned up at opening prices. As the harvest has progressed a marked shortage in the crop as compared with estimates made earlier in the season has appeared. Most of the brokers selling walnuts sold up the estimated output of the associations they represent, and some are therefore finding the necessity of pro rating their orders to an extent."

As growers know, the brokers of the associations have been authorized to quote walnuts to the eastern buyers f. o. b. coast, at 14 cents per pound for No. 1 soft shells, 10 cents for No. 2, 16 1/2 cents for banded nuts. This means that the nuts have been processed, sacked and placed in the freight car ready for shipment. From the price quoted, therefore, must be deducted the expense of processing, the price of sacks and the broker's commission. On the other hand the grower gains an increase in weight from processing. The expense, after allowance for a gain in weight, has therefore averaged about 1 cent a pound. This year, and in future if the new policy is continued, the price of the sack will add to the expense. Heretofore the eastern buyer paid to the association the walnut price for the weight of the sack. To this the eastern buyer has long objected, and the change has been made to overcome this objection. The associations must now charge the price of the sack in raising the price of the nuts sufficiently to make up for it. We may take it for granted that this was considered in agreeing on a price.

There are a number of factors entering into the settling upon a price. Among them are the general market conditions, the size of the foreign crop, the size of the California crop (other states cut little figure) and the competition of the outsider against the association.

The foreign crop was known to be light; the foreigner has learned better than we have to count his walnuts before they drop. General market conditions were favorable. The quick sale of the California product is proof of that.

The competition of the outsider was a serious factor to be considered by the walnut growers' committee, and no doubt it greatly influenced the setting of the price. I wish to make this point as clear to the walnut growers and as emphatic as possible, for we must learn not to cut the ground from under our own feet. The association price last year was 14 cents, netting about 13 cents for No. 1. But the outsiders sold orchard run all the way from 9 to 13 cents, averaging 11 cents.

"SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR BILIOUS STOMACH, GAS, HEADACHE OR WASTE-CLOGGED BOWELS

This Harmless, Delicious Fruit Laxative is More Effective Than Calomel, Salts, Oil or Cathartics to Cleanse the Stomach, Liver and 30 Feet of Bowels

Foul breath, coated tongue, dull, throbbing headache, stomach sour and full of gases, indigestion, biliousness and a sallow complexion, mean that your thirty feet of bowels are clogged with waste matter; that these drainage organs of the body are obstructed; liver stagnant and stomach full of poisonous gases, sour bile and undigested, fermenting food not properly carried off.

Most of our ills are caused by constipated bowels. We all need a laxative sometimes; nobody can doubt that. The only question is, Which one is the best? And that isn't a question any more. Syrup of Figs, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics, must act in a harmless, gentle and natural way. Syrup of Figs can be constantly used without injury. Its action is the action aging perhaps 11 cents; at all events below the association price. These nuts were thrown into the market to break the association price; and, helped by the importation of the Manchurian walnut, and by the fact of an unusually large crop at home which had been greatly underestimated, the market was broken, and the association had to cut its price finally, still netting the grower 12 1/2 cents for No. 1. In view of last year's experience the committee would naturally hesitate to put as high a price on walnuts as they would otherwise have been justified in doing. Therefore it is clear that the outsider held the price down to the disadvantage of the association. And since in turn the outsider buyer is guided by the association price, the outsider grower gets a lower price because he has helped to lower the association price. Instead of repeating the old tune, "The association fixed the price too low," let us be just and say: "The outsider grower fixed the price too low."

The crop estimate is another important factor in price making. Last year the estimate was about one-third too low, this year it was much too high. May we call it "estimate?" The word "guess" would perhaps answer a better purpose. My plea is that we should have an "estimate," not a "guess." The guess last year helped to work to the disadvantage of the grower, and does again this year.

The unorganized growers do not, can not, and will not assume the burden of making an estimate. They are willing, however, to benefit by the work of the association. And I believe they would be at least willing to give the necessary information to one who properly approached them, because of the benefit they would receive without expense to them.

The work of getting a good estimate will fall upon the association. The expense will be small, and the benefit large. While an estimate will not often coincide exactly with the actual crop, yet it will come fairly near to it and form a fair guide in price making.

The crop this year, as already intimated, is far below the earlier guess, which had to pass as an estimate. Those who said the "output would be smaller than that of last year now prove to have been conservative. Some growers find their crop to be less than half of last year's. It is a fact that those who looked for a short crop find an even greater shortage than they looked for. I maintain that if a proper attempt had been made to get an accurate estimate as possible we could have come much nearer the actual figures as they will turn out, and the committee would have felt justified in raising the price a little above that of last year with its record crop. I urge the walnut growers to insist upon having an estimate made in future years. I believe that if the committee had not been hampered by the fear of the competition from the outsiders on the one hand, and if on the other hand they had been guided by a good estimate of the crop, they would have been justified in placing the price at 15 cents, which would have brought from $60,000 to $80,000 more to Orange county.

Do you smile if I ask you whether the eastern consumer would have to pay 1 cent more per pound, because you, the grower, get 1 cent more per pound?

No doubt, the crop could have been sold promptly at 15 cents. But this is not written to criticize the committee or the associations, which have proved themselves so large a benefactor of our community. It is written rather with the view of placing before the grower the plain facts as I see them, and to urge the outsider in the interest of himself and of his neighbor to join the association.

The output is now said to be 20 per cent short of last year's in this county, and is likely to be found even shorter.

Strength

The strength of a banking institution consists not alone in its financial resources but also in the character and ability of its officers and directors and in the confidence and loyalty given it by the community of which it is a part. These banks are pre-eminently strong in ALL respects.

Service

The proper conception of a banking institution's duties and privileges includes service to its community. A bank must pay its stockholders a fair rate of interest in order to secure and hold investments in its stock; but its duty does not end here; it must also render REAL SERVICE to its community in the way of public enterprises and private support. These banks point with pride to their records in these respects.

Solvency

A banking institution to be really and truly solvent must have more and other assets than merely money and credits in excess of its money liabilities. It must have a surplus of character, a reserve fund of reputation, a credit balance of experience, large and moral resources. These banks invite examination as to their moral solvency.
